

Buy your tickets early for the Kampout

KBUT Community Radio is pleased to announce the 30th anniversary celebration of community radio in the Gunnison Valley with the return of the KBUT Kampout, a one-day music festival on Saturday, August 27 at the I Bar Ranch in Gunnison.

This year's lineup features over 12 hours of live music, featuring 10 acts on two stages as well as late night DJs. There's an amazing lineup of nationally touring bands as well as local artists.

Headlining are Monophonics, one of the best soul and funk bands in the country, originally hailing from the Bay Area. The New Orleans Suspects, a quintessential funk band, celebrates the musical richness of the Big Easy. Analog Son from Denver will join the lineup so don't miss your chance to catch some funky, trippy jazz-funk from an awesome set of players.

Finally, the Gunnison Valley's own Kung Pao will be included in this lineup and this band packs a wallop with their bottom-heavy sound. Local band Gun Rack as well as Emmitt, Emmitt, Hill, and Pankratz and many more artists will be joining on stage throughout the day and night.

Free camping will be available on-site at the I-Bar ranch and local food vendors will offer food and drinks all day long. A full bar for 21+over will be available. Do not miss the KBUT Kampout, and mark your calendar for this year's event.

Tickets are available at KBUT.org or at the station, located at 508 Maroon Ave. in Crested Butte, or call (970) 349-5225. Early-bird tickets are available for $35 before August 5 or $45 at the gate. A limited edition of 30th anniversary commemorative paper tickets are available for first 100 people.
