

Trust Yourself, Trust Your Voice: A Healing Through the Arts Theatre Program at the GAC

In this Trust Yourself, Trust Your Voice class for teens aged 13 to 18 at the Gunnison Arts Center on Friday, July 24 from 7 to 9 p.m., participants will help identify the stories and narratives that may be holding us back, and using theatre-based activities and techniques, dig into new practices to remind us of just how powerful we are and how much we have to offer.

The cost is $20 and $17 for Gunnison Arts Center members.

Wear comfortable clothes and prepare to move and laugh! This class will be safely held in the GAC Dance Studio with instructor Heather Hughes.

We've all found ourselves in situations, be it giving a presentation, in a class, at a meeting, or sometimes just at a meal with friends and family, having something to say, but for any number of reasons, stopping ourselves and staying quiet. The stories we tell ourselves about who we are and what we have to offer are powerful and important and not always accurate.

The Gunnison Arts Center has teamed up with the Center for Mental Health to offer this mindful art series to the Gunnison Valley to help participants explore and express creativity and emotions through art. Participate in-person or in a virtual class and even download an activity to do in your own space, on your own time.

Healing Through the Arts at the GAC

Shape, see, move, hear, and feel what's inside. This new series of art activities and classes is aimed at helping all in our community understand and safely express emotions during difficult times. The Gunnison Arts Center has teamed up with the Center for Mental Health to offer this mindful art series to the Gunnison

Valley, to help you explore and express creativity and emotions through art. Participate in-person or in a virtual class and even download an activity to do in your own space, on your own time.

—CONCERNING THE ABANDONMENT LIST OF—WATER RIGHTS IN GUNNISON COUNTY

The Division Engineer, in accordance with §37-92-401, Colorado Revised Statutes (2019), has compiled the list of absolute water rights that he or she "has determined to have been abandoned in whole or in part and which previously have not been adjudged to have been abandoned." A complete list of water rights that have been abandoned, in the opinion of the Division Engineer, may be found on the Division of Water Resources (DWR) website <https://www.colorado.gov/water>.
If you wish to object to the inclusion of any water right on the Division Engineer's abandonment list, you must file a written statement of objection with the Division Engineer by July 1, 2021. We request that objections be submitted using DWR's Abandonment Objection Form, which can be obtained on the DWR website (search keyword "Abandonment 2020") or from any DWR office.

The Abandonment List, with any revisions made as a result of written statements of objection, will be filed with the Water Court by December 31, 2021. Once the list is adjudged by the entry of a decree by the Water Court, such decree will be conclusive as to the abandonment of the water right.
In the following table, U indicates units of either C=cfs or A=acre-ft. The uses being abandoned are either 'All Uses' indicating all decreed uses of the water right, or the individual uses listed, such as Irr=Irrigation. If any aspect of the decreed place of use is being abandoned, that is indicated by 'Yes' in the Place column.
