Colorado Backcountry

Join us this summer in a variety of outdoor adventures for middle schoolers! From summiting mountain peaks, to exploring the backcountry through backpacking, or learning how to photograph the outdoors and your adventures with just your phone, each experience will build skills and confidence while focusing on fun! From beginners to experts, anyone of any experience level is invited to join us! For more information and to register: www.coloradobc.com or info@coloradobc.com

Core

CORE CB Kids is excited to offer summer camps throughout the summer! Camps will be led by Larry Chauvin, former PE teacher, director at Camp Longhorn, and co-owner of Austin Youth Fitness in Austin, TX.

Camp CORE: Starting with fun fitness drills, campers will learn proper running form and pacing, and work on age-appropriate strength and agility training to build fitness skills. The second half of the camp will focus on fun, high movement, high energy games!

CORE Kids Ride: The afternoon camp is a recreational bike ride around CB and CB South! Campers learn about rules of the road and trail, such as how to take care of their bikes, helmet checks, and skills to help them be better bikers! Students should be able to independently ride a bike without training wheels to be in the biking portion of camp. For more information: www.corecbkids.com.

Crested Butte Clay Studio

The Crested Butte Clay Studio offers ceramics classes for kids ages 9+ in both hand building and wheel throwing. Kids will learn how to throw on the potters wheel as well as explore texture, color, and hand building techniques while making one-of-a-kind objects. Summer classes will run from June 23-August 15. We also offer private lessons, family sessions and birthday parties. Please visit www.crestedbutteclaystudio.com for more information.

Crested Butte Devo

The Crested Butte Development Team's mission is "To provide a fun and safe environment for young cyclists to develop skills and passion that last a lifetime." With our NEW "Intro to CB Devo" programming for riders in 2025-26 grades 2-5, we are excited to help instill a passion for mountain biking in even more of our community's youth. Due to the nature of our progress-based curriculum, focus on positive youth development, and our commitment to the highest risk management standards, CB Devo programming is available for nine weeks without the ability to accommodate drop-in riders. We offer both Standard/Trail and Downhill program options where we focus on not only technical skills, but also establish a strong foundation in trail etiquette and self-care that ultimately aims to develop better people first, and better riders second. Oh yes, and have a LOT of fun while doing so! Please visit us online at CrestedButteDevo.com for more information or contact director@CrestedButteDevo.com with any questions.

Mountain Roots

Say YES! to Adventure! Mountain Roots is back with Big, Wide World Adventure Camps (grades 3-5, full days and K-2, half days). Our popular adventure field trip-based camp where we will explore forests and fields, rivers and streams, mountains and meadows, trails, lakes, animal habitats, wetlands, farms, and even kitchens throughout the valley. We weave in nature-based art, cooperative games, cooking, farm animals, and other fun experiences in the natural world. Small groups, enthusiastic outdoor educators, and fantastic destinations – right in our own backyard - make our summer camps a favorite of locals and visitors alike. Offered in Crested Butte Mon/Wed and in Gunnison Tues/Thurs. Scholarships available. Visit mountainrootsfoodproject.org/summer-camps for info and registration.

The Trailhead Children's Museum

Explore, Create, and Play with the Trailhead this summer! The Trailhead offers art and play programs for children ages 3-11 five days a week, all summer long. Your young artist will explore new and exciting art mediums and skills, spend time in the natural beauty of Crested Butte, and create all day with friends new and old. We invite your emerging artist to follow their creative passions and curiosities and join us at the Trailhead this summer!

Western Colorado University

Junior Mountaineers Camp

Western Athletics is back again this summer to provide a unique summer camp opportunity to youth in the Gunnison Valley! This state-licensed camp will take place on the Western Colorado University campus and is specially designed for children ages 5-12. Junior Mountaineers combines athletics and physical activities with STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art, math) to create a summer full of adventures and learning. Each week of camp will have a different theme that the various STEAM activities are based around in addition to the regularly scheduled weekly activities:

Monday - Library Visit / Storytime & Board Games / Char Mar Park

Tuesday - Rock Climbing at Western Fieldhouse & STEAM Lab with Western / CU Boulder Professors

Wednesday - Water Wednesdays (Swimming at Rec Center, rope swing at Western's pool, sprinklers & slip n slide fun)

Thursday - STEAM Lab with Western / CU Boulder Professors
Friday - Field Trip Fridays

The camp staff consists of Western students majoring in education, engineering, exercise and sport science, recreation & outdoor education who have been carefully selected by the Athletics Department due to their diverse backgrounds and skills they bring to the Junior Mountaineers program. This team of staff will guide the adventures & learning to create a positive and fun summer experience for the Junior Mountaineers campers!
